Historic Steel Contract Reached by Union, Producers

CARDINAL MONTINI IS ELECTED PONTIFF

Pact Is First Signed Without Strike Threat

Accord Features Extended Vacations, No Wage Increase

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A historic steel-labor agreement which could possibly revolutionize collective bargaining was reached Thursday by the United Steelworkers Union and 11 major steel producers.

The agreement, seen as a partial answer to the industry's unemployment ills, marks the first time a settlement has been concluded in the basic steel industry without a strike or threat of a strike.

No wage hike is included in the pact which features an extended vacation plan for senior employees, the first such plan in the industry.

The agreement, which will cost the companies an estimated 15 cents an hour per man-hour worked, also includes new hospital, health and insurance benefits. The contract is effective for 21 months, starting Aug. 1, and thus insures steel labor peace during the 1964 presidential election. Each side will have the right to terminate the pact upon 120 days notice after Jan. 1, 1965.

Announcement of the agreement—reached without formal collective bargaining—was made jointly by labor and management executives at a news conference following a three-hour ratifying session of the union's international wage policy committee.

In Washington, the White House said President Kennedy was gratified by the early agreement. But further comment was withheld until the contract terms could be studied.

The agreement culminates about 5½ months of discussions by the joint union-industry Human Relations Committee, a body created after the bitter 116-day strike in 1959 to examine mutual problems.

Under the current two-year contract, the union has had the right since May 1 to re-open formal negotiations. That would have automatically imposed a 90-day strike deadline.

Steelworker President David J. McDonald, who serves as co-chairman of the 10-man committee with R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of U.S. Steel, credited the group with doing "a magnificent job." adding, "some said it couldn't be done; but we did it."

Cooper, who has been the industry's chief negotiator in previous labor talks, said, "The Human Relations Committee has enabled the parties to discuss the issues calmly and reasonably without the pressure of any fixed deadline. At this time in the history of collective bargaining, this is a significant development."

3 Prisoners to Begin Pen Terms

Sheriff Russell Van Fossan and Chief Deputy Robert Beresford transferred three prisoners to the Ohio Penitentiary today to begin serving terms imposed upon them in common pleas court.

They were: Robert Leland Dickey, 21, of Canton, sentenced to one to 25 years, for robbery of the Metzger Hotel in Salem last Jan. 17. Joseph Shields, 35, of 855 Newgarden Ave., Salem, one to 20 years, for forgery of check at the A & P store in Salem, after it had been stolen from the Harry Kannal and Son Coal Co.

George W. Sims, 34, Wellsville, one to 15 years, for the daylight burglary of the Super food store in Wellsville Jan. 27.

Hope to Erect Modern Bank Building

Home Savings' Bid Is High For Old Post Office Site

Although the Home Savings & Loan Co. has submitted the highest bid for the purchase of the abandoned Salem post office, the financial firm's acquisition of the property is not assured.

Four bids were submitted, it was announced today by the U.S. General Services Administration, but all were below the government's appraisal of the property.

The GSA will meet Monday at its offices in Chicago to review the bids, and a final decision on selling the building or redeveloping for bids will be announced by Wednesday, the GSA told The Salem News.

The Home Savings & Loan offer for the property was $75,500, almost double that of the next highest bidders.

Other bids were received from: Meriam E. Co. e, Shaker Heights, $39,000. Samuel O. Magram, Pittsburgh, $20,500.

Preston E. Corey, Columbiana, $20,550.

Home Savings & Loan Co. said today if its bid is accepted, the firm will erect a new banking facility on the site.

School Board Steps Aside

The GSA's decision to sell the brick old post office building followed a rejection by the Salem Board of Education of tentative plans to obtain the structure for use as an administration building.

The property comprises approximately 0.3812 acre of land and is improved with a one-story building with mezzanine and full basement. Construction is of steel frame, concrete floor slabs, brick foundation and walls and stone exterior.

The total floor area is approximately 11,950 square feet. The structure was abandoned in the spring of 1962 following completion of the new post office on Columbia St.

The Home Savings & Loan Co., whose main offices are in Youngstown, has maintained a Salem branch at 532 E. State St. since 1927.

Bids for the purchase of the purchase of the old post office were accepted at the GSA offices

Pope To Continue Progressive Policy

VATICAN CITY (AP)—In age-old ceremony the College of Cardinals today elected Giovanni Battista Cardinal Montini, archbishop of Milan, the new Pope of the Roman Catholic Church. He chose the name of Paul VI as a symbol of Christian unity.

The new Pope is expected to carry forward the progressive policies of his predecessor, John XXIII, who died June 3 at the age of 81. Pope Paul at 65 is the 262nd ruler of the Roman Catholic Church.

"I have tidings of great joy," proclaimed a cardinal to thousands who jammed St. Peter's Square. "We have a Pope."

In line with tradition, Pope Paul then appeared on the basilica balcony at 12:21 p.m. to make his first public appearance as the chief pastor of the world's half-billion Roman Catholics. It was an hour after the white smoke puffing from the chimney of the Sistine Chapel had first signaled his election.

Only for an instant did the voice of the new Pope shake with emotion as he gave his first blessing. "Urbi et orbi," to the City of Rome and to the world. His message rang out clear and strong to the crowds below. They responded with a great roar.

He stayed on the balcony for five minutes, clad in papal robes of white, with a white skullcap. An embroidered papal stole draped his shoulders. Gray-haired, blue-eyed, he presented a figure of great dignity and fine physical appearance.

As he delivered the blessing he made the sign of the cross toward the crowd.

Then he returned to the Sistine Chapel to again receive the homage of the College of Cardinals who had chosen him Pope.

The throng was told that the new Pope had granted them a full indulgence—a remission before God of temporal punishment due for sins.

Eighty princes of the church elected the Milan archbishop on the second day of their secret conclave in the Sistine Chapel. He had been regarded as a favorite. The election came on the fifth or sixth ballot.

He was archbishop of Milan for the past eight years and worked closely with Pope John during his reign of four years and seven months.

A Vatican diplomat, he was pro-secretary of state for Pope Pius XII.

As the tidings were given to the throngs in St. Peter's Square the great bell of St. Peter's—the campanone—rang out. Other churches took up the peal.

The new Pope went all the way back to the 17th century to take the name of the Roman, Paul V, who died in 1621. In this he followed the example set by John XXIII, who chose a name that had not been used for centuries. Raimondo Manzini, editor of L'Osservatore Romano, explained to newsmen the significance of the Pope's name:

"It is a symbol of ecumenical unity, venerated by Catholics, Protestants and the Orthodox."

Pope Paul moved dynamically in starting his pontificate. He immediately named Amleto Cardinal Cicognani as his secretary of state. Cardinal Cicognani had been Pope John's secretary of state.

The choice of name and the decision on his secretary of state showed the new Pope's intention to follow the path traced by his predecessor.

Vatican press officials said the Pope's coronation would be June 29. They said he might deliver a

Bill Passed On Junkyards

Strict Licensing Covers Rural Areas

By WILLIAM S. VANCE

News Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS — After accepting one amendment and rejecting another, the Ohio House voted Thursday afternoon to put rural auto junk yards under a strict licensing law.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, D—St. Clairsville, passed 108-13. It now goes back to the Senate for concurrence in house amendments.

The amendment adopted on the house floor Thursday cuts the proposed license fees. The bill sought an initial fee of $100 for a license, renewable annually for $25. The amendment cut the initial fee to $25 and the renewal fee to $10.

The amendment was offered by Rep. Harry Armstrong, R—Hocking, who claimed the proposed fee was unrealistic.

The house rejected an amendment offered by Rep. James Hapner, R—Highland, which would have brought junk yards inside municipalities under the licensing provisions of the bill.

If the senate concurs in house amendments, new or expanding junk yards outside of municipalities would have to comply with the licensing law by Jan. 1, 1964. All rural junk yards would be required to comply by Jan. 1, 1965.

Junk yards within 1,000 feet of state or county highways or within 300 feet of township roads would have to be obscured by fences or natural objects to obtain a license.

Violators of the licensing law would be subject to fines of $25 to $1,000.

The bill requires county sheriffs to inspect junk yards within their jurisdiction at least twice a year to determine whether licensing provisions are being met.

Other Action Taken

In other action, the house passed 95-6 a bill cosponsored by Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel, R—Columbiana, which would increase county court judge compensation from $1,500 to $3,000 a year.

Exile Council Claims Troops Landed

No Confirmation Of Cuba Invasion

MIAMI Fla. (AP)—The Cuban Revolutionary Council and thousands of exiles awaited word today from commandos the council said it had put on Fidel Castro's shores to launch "the beginning of the liberation of Cuba."

There was no confirmation from Cuban or United States governments of such landings. The council said it expected a progress report by radio today from fighting men it said were welcomed by peasants and who swiftly joined forces with area guerrilla bands. Sketchy and unauthenticated broadcasts pointed to southern Oriente, Cuba's easternmost province, as the possible site of landings and perhaps clashes.

One such broadcast Thursday night reported a "Camilo Cienfuegos Battalion" landed and met overwhelming opposition at Caney de Las Mercedes, near Manzanillo which is 280 miles west of the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay. But a former Caney de Las Mercedes resident who heard the same news said "Camilo Cienfuegos" was the name of a Castro youth communism indoctrination school there. He said the report indicated invaders were hotly besieging it.

Another exile said a broadcast on the 40 meter band said, "This is the Cuban Anti-Communist Liberation Army. Go ahead Pinar del Rio." Pinar del Rio is the name of Cuba's easternmost province.

A Cuban military network broadcast mentioned no landings, but warned servicemen, especially in naval units, to be alert for anything unusual.

The revolutionary council, in its surprise announcement Thursday morning, withheld the number, departure points and landing sites of the forces it said landed recently in groups of 8 to 10.

The U.S. State and Defense Departments said they had no information of any landings and expressed doubt that substantial

Negroes Plan Capital March

100,000 Expected To Demonstrate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Police intelligence reports that 100,000 Negroes might march on Capitol Hill to demonstrate for civil rights legislation have deepened concern that violence might flare from the protest.

The concern is shared by advocates and opponents of new civil rights measures, well-placed sources told a reporter, and many backers of the legislation hope the White House will help to evolve some compromise but dramatic alternative.

The estimate on the number of marchers was made, the sources said, by the New York City Police Department, which forwarded its intelligence reports to the Washington Metropolitan Police. In turn, the information was sent to Capitol Hill, which has its own police force of a couple of hundred men, many of them college students.

The fear of violence is based, too, on talk by integrationist leaders of mass "sit-ins" in the halls of Congress and its environs that would run afoul of the law.

It was learned from a top informant that Washington and Capitol police officials have expressed strong doubt that incidents could be avoided if 100,000 demonstrators, or even fewer thousands, began milling about Capitol buildings or grounds, or attempted to

Part of JFK's Civil Rights Program

Vocational Plan Sent To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has asked Congress to approve a massive federal vocational training and education program designed to aid economically deprived Negro and white Americans.

The President's program, first mentioned in his civil rights message Wednesday, was spelled out in three bills he forwarded Thursday to Capitol Hill. They call for an estimated federal outlay next year of $300 million.

One bill would expand the manpower development program authorized next year, a second would step up the vocational education measure now being considered by the Senate and the third assist adults now on welfare roles primarily by increasing their basic educational skills.

In his message Kennedy had cited the problems of those who are "illiterate and unskilled, unable to read a help wanted advertisement."

"Although the proportion of Negroes without an adequate education and training is far higher than the proportion of whites," Kennedy said, "none of these problems is restricted to Negroes alone."

Among other things, the President called for:

1. A new $70-million program to teach adults to read and write so they can take advantage of federal retraining programs.

2. Earmarking funds for special boarding schools to train out-of-school jobless youths.

3. Lowering the age for youths eligible for training allowances from 19 to 16 and raising the proportion of training allowances for young people from 5 to 15 per cent.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said the manpower bill would cost $100 million in the next

Euclid Man Dies In Car, Truck Crash

Excessive speed, and rain-slickened pavement may have been contributory factors in the high-way death of a 41-year-old Euclid businessman whose station wagon collided with a brick-loaded truck operated by a Salem man in Portage County Thursday afternoon.

Killed was William Carl Romoser, regional manager of a Cuyahoga firm. He was dead on arrival at Robinson Memorial Hospital in Ravenna of multiple injuries including a fractured skull, neck, right arm and right leg.

The Romoser auto was struck broadside by the truck in the passenger side as the station wagon spun out of control at 4:15 p.m. on Route 183, (old Route 80) about three miles south of Route 14.

The truck driver, Paul J. Highfield Jr., 28, of 589 Ohio Ave., southbound and hauling 15 tons of bricks, saw the out-of-control wagon and attempted to avoid the collision by going off the pavement. But, he said, the Romoser car, traveling sideways and yet forward at what the trucker said was high speed for the conditions, came directly into the path of the Deimona Co. truck.

"I had my lights on and could see the car skidding around all over the pavement ahead," Highfield said at his home today. "The car seemed to be traveling 55 or 60 miles an hour. I tried to drive off the highway and went into the yard of a home to try to miss the wagon."

Highfield escaped injury, but his truck was extensively damaged and he said about half of his load of building bricks were

Glenn Miller Goshen High Graduate

Football Coach Hired By Greenford Board

Glenn Miller, 29, an assistant mentor at Gibsonburg the past three years, has been named head football coach at Greenford High School.

"This will be Miller's first experience as head coach," said Greenford Superintendent of Schools Woodrow Bailey following his announcement of the appointment by the Board of Education Thursday night.

Miller is a graduate of Goshen High School and Youngstown University and a 1952-56 Navy veteran.

He is presently working on his master's degree at Bowling Green University.

At Greenford, Miller will also assist with the coaching in basketball and track.

He will receive, in addition to the schools basic teaching salary, $650 for his football activities and $200 each for the other two assignments.

Miller has a physical education degree, out will be assigned to the biology department at Greenford.

During his high school career he participated in football at Leetonia High School and was a member of the varsity basketball team at Goshen.

He didn't compete in varsity sports at Youngstown University. At Gibsonburg, near Fremont, Miller was assistant football, baseball and track coach. The Golden Bears posted a 9-1 record in football last year and had an 8-2 mark in 1961.

Gibsonburg also swept to the grid title in the Seaway Conference all three years Miller was a member of the staff.

Miller is replacing Al Carrino who accepted a similar position at United High School following one year of coaching at Greenford.

In other action the board ordered $10,000 worth of shop equipment as part of the expanded industrial and graphic arts program to go into effect next fall.

4 Are Hurt In As Many Road Mishaps

Three members of a Petersburg family and an elderly East Liverpool woman were hurt, but not seriously, in two of four traffic mishaps in the district Thursday.

Injured in a two-car crash at 9:05 p.m. near Petersburg were: Barbara Repasky, 22, of Petersburg, lacerations of back and neck.

Richard Repasky, 4, lacerations of right eyebrow.

Sherri Repasky, 18, lacerations of right forearm and contusions of right shoulder.

Mark Murray, 22, of Youngstown, contusions of right knee. All were treated by a New Middletown physician and released.

The Canfield post of the State Highway Patrol said Murray's car collided with one driven by Mrs. Repasky's husband, Frank, 26, on Route 170, about two miles north of Route 630.

Murray was traveling south and passing other traffic when he sideswiped Repasky's vehicle, the patrol said. The Youngstown man was cited for passing without the assured clear distance.

Liverpool Woman Hurt Mrs. Flossie May Full, 68, of East Liverpool was taken to East Liverpool City Hospital after her auto collided with one driven by Paul Merical, 28, of Wellsville at 2:30 p.m. on Route 7, just north of Wellsville. She was treated for contusions of the chest and a possible neck injury.

It's summer today, officially. Summer's debut came after cool weather Thursday evening sent temperatures tumbling. Cold winds added to the discomfort as low, dark clouds moved in from Canada.

The low reading early this morning at the Salem sewage treatment plant was 33 degrees. By noon today, however, the mercury had climbed to 64.

Firestone Park Pool - 'One Big Splash' New Columbiana Plant to Start Operations Monday

Swimmers Dip Even on Days Mercury Does

COLUMBIANA — Ever since the swimming pool opened Memorial Day at Firestone Memorial Park, it's been one big splash. Park manager Perry Kyser says the attendance, despite the often-below average temperatures has been exceptionally good.

The pool will be booming even more next week when a two-week training program for beginning swimmers opens Monday. Some 300 were enrolled for the free lessons last year, and the park administration expects this year's number to be equally high. Pupils pay only the cost of pool admission.

The classes will run from 9 to 10 a.m. before the pool opens for the day. Children of all ages are invited to learn, but Kyser says children too young won't profit much from the lessons. He recommends that parents with children below five years of age not send them for instructions.

Life guards who are also qualified swimming instructors will teach the youngsters. They include Carlyle Elser, a junior at Youngstown University, and college girls Janice Toot, Sherry Ward, Becky Way and Nancy Perrine. Some former guards will also assist these five regulars, Kyser said.

After the mass instructions ending July 6, 75 to 100 Bluebirds, Junior Campfire girls from the Fairfield-New Waterford area, will come in for lessons, with children from Canfield being worked in three days a week.

Junior and senior lifesaving lessons will be started following the Bluebird lessons, scheduled to begin in early August. Some 40 are expected for junior division lifesaving and 25 for the senior classes.

Classes for Boy Scouts from Columbiana, North Lima, New Springfield and New Middletown will be sandwiched in the busy pool schedule so scouts can earn their merit badges.

Private swimming lessons are also given at 8 a.m. each day. The pool is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. with night swimming under the lights.

Also practicing at the pool are some 20 members of the Columbiana swim team, rehearsing for their upcoming contests against teams from Salem and Lisbon. Columbiana won the swim meets last year.

POOL SCHOOL — Three Columbiana lads get a preview of swimming techniques to be taught starting Monday at Firestone Park. Demonstrating a basic stroke is lifeguard and swimming instructor Carlyle Elser of Pittsburgh St., Columbiana, Youngstown University junior. His "pupils" are Carl Ballantine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ballantine of Manor Dr.; Tim Christoferson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Christoferson of Howard St.; and Tom Posey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Posey of Stanton Ave.

RAFT OF FUN — For pure delight on a hot day it's hard to beat a good pool and a rubber mattress to frolic with your buddies. This healthy quartet, living it up at the Firestone Park Pool when the photographer dropped by, includes Diana Spait, Barbara Lamocha and Mary Lou Cleckner of Fairfield Township and Linda Wenderoth of Columbiana.

COLUMBIANA — Stanley Beller, plant manager of Columbiana's newest industry, the Ballanoff Metal Products, has announced next Monday as the date the first assembly line will be set into operation.

Beller has been interviewing applicants this week and a training program for machine operators will begin as soon as possible. Equipment and materials in the former F. C. Russell Co. plant which were sold at public auction are still in the process of being moved out. Complete removal will determine the opening of operations.

From 150 to 200 workers are expected to be employed, 70 percent of which will be women. First consideration for employment was given to area applicants.

The main line of products expected to be under production at the Columbiana division of Ballanoff are metal products such as bread boxes, canisters, waste baskets, serving trays and other special order items.

Machinery was moved here from Bolivar, Tenn., and heavy duty offset presses, used in printing the designs on finished metal products, will be moved to the Columbiana site from Kent sometime this summer.

Columbiana was considered an ideal site for location of the division due to the availability of the Russell Co. building and an adequate labor supply.

Howard Donbar, son of Luther Donbar of Woodland Ave., will leave July 1 for work in Thailand for 1½ years. The younger Donbar, a cable splicer for the Adolf Hirsch Construction Co., will be doing work for the U.S. government in the Far East country. He will be accompanied by his wife, the former Jane Slagle, also of Columbiana.

The couple has been living in Great Falls, Mont. for the past 1½ years where he has been a cable splicer at the Great Falls missile base. He earlier did similar work in Cheyenne.

Mrs. Donbar was employed at an air conditioning firm in Great Falls and hopes to work in Thailand with her husband.

A FINAL SHOWING of slides of New Guinea will be shown by Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Goldhardt at 8 p.m. Friday in Luther Hall at Jerusalem Lutheran Church.

The Goldhardts will be returning to the central highlands of New Guinea in July for a six-year stay, after spending a year's leave in Columbiana, living at 222 No. Elm St.

They have spent 16 years in missionary work and 14 years in field work during their period of service.

A farewell reception for the Goldhardts will be held beginning at 3 p.m. Sunday in the sanctuary of Jerusalem Lutheran Church. Rev. O. E. Lueck, pastor of Bethel Lutheran Church, of Canton, will speak on the subject, "When Your Heart's On Fire!"

Following services in the sanctuary, an informal reception will be held.

The Granges

Plans for a turkey and ham supper from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday were made when Smith Grange met Monday. Thirty-eight members were present.

Participating in a tribute to fathers were Harry Watkins, Eugene Courtney, Mrs. Glenn Turner, Mrs. Louis Stahl, Lillian Williams, Hazel Mixer and Rachel Oesch.

Lunch committee for July will be Mr. and Mrs. Turner. A patriotic theme will be followed July 1.

Juveniles also met. Richard Lee, Tressa Courtney, and Dale Bowersock were honored for birthdays. Bowersock was given a gift for perfect attendance. Games were directed by Mrs. Raymond King and Judy Turner.

Members attending the meeting of Guilford Grange at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at the grange hall are requested to bring entries for the orange nut bread baking contest. Entries will be used as refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Services are scheduled at 8 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. at Jerusalem Lutheran Church and 9:15 a.m. at Zion Lutheran Church in New Waterford. Sunday School will be held at 9:30 a.m. at Jerusalem and 10:15 a.m. at Zion. Pastor of the churches is Rev. Thomas E. Rehl.

U.S., Russia Sign 'Hot Line' Treaty

GENEVA (AP)—To the popping of champagne corks the U.S.-Soviet agreement on a hot line between Washington and Moscow was formally signed today.

The line provides for a direct Teletype cable between the two capitals as on means of preventing an outbreak of war by accident.

It would be used by President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle and Soviet negotiator Semyon K. Tsarapkin signed the agreement in the French Room of the Palace of Nations in their capacity as American and Russian delegates to the 17-nation disarmament conference.

The agreement was entitled "Memorandum of Understanding Between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics regarding the establishment of a Direct Communications Link."

Stelle and Tsarapkin, who have bitterly attacked each other for months in the otherwise deadlocked disarmament conference, opened a bottle of champagne and drank a toast to their first concrete achievement.

Doing the Best He Can

President Kennedy is doing the best he can on civil rights.

To understand why he can do no better, give thought to the bind he's in.

Civil rights tension has brought a "moral crisis" in America, he says. That is where President Kennedy starts to feel the pinch.

The "moral crisis" is in his own political party. The party's Southern wing is the indispensable element in keeping the party in power.

The party could not have won in 1960 without the support of Southern segregationists who deny civil rights to Negroes because that is the way to sew up the votes of Negro-hating Southern whites.

It cannot win in 1964 without the support of Southern segregationists.

Yet, here is a Democratic president, under bone-breaking pressure from the Northern wing of his party, sweeping the truth about segregation under the rug with a proposal to legislate the moral crisis out of existence.

HIS CIVIL rights program has the usual characteristics.

First, there would be a new appropriation—$40 million extra to broaden existing and proposed programs to expand employment opportunities.

Then there would be a new federal agency to tell local government what to do.

Third, it would be made illegal by federal law for private hotels, restaurants, theaters, stores and sports arenas to do what state laws enacted and enforced by Southern politicians affiliated with the Democratic party now command these enterprises to do.

Last, there would be a law saying the federal government did not have to appropriate money for any program or activity in which racial discrimination existed. This is the kind of gimmick that cracks down on people who can't make a perfect score though trying and is ignored by people who scoff at the whole proposition.

NO ONE can blame Mr. Kennedy for not being able to dissolve the civil rights dilemma with a magic wand.

Nor can he be blamed for going through the motions of proposing something he knows will be fought tooth and nail by Southern irreconcilables in the Democratic party.

A chief executive must do the best he can in a dilemma like this.

The rest of us must do the best we can, too. In this case, the best we can do is cope with the moral crisis to the best of our varying personal abilities and mistrust all proposals for action in a Congress dominated by Southern Democrats.

They have nothing in common with Northern Democrats or Republicans on this issue. For any Democratic president to talk as if this might be otherwise is an act of bad faith.

SEGREGATION of Negroes and denial of civil rights are part and parcel of Democratic doctrine in the South. No Democratic president can rise above this sordid element in his party's structure.

As long as Southern irreconcilables cling to this position and are permitted to dominate the Democratic party, there is no hope in passing more laws, not even in appropriating more money and setting up new agencies.

Harriman To Have Advantage In Test Ban Talks

By MARGUERITE HIGGINS

Averell Harriman has a certain advantage over the present Soviet leaders. He knew them all when — when they were very junior Bolsheviks.

During a long tour of Russia as a private citizen in 1950, it was Premier Khrushchev who came up to Mr. Harriman and introduced himself with a twinkle in his eye and the remark, "I remember you but you probably don't remember me. We met early in the war and you were the celebrity then and I was way down the line."

De-Stalinization may have taken over in Russia, but the present Soviet leaders still possess a certain awe and a great deal of interest in persons — like Harriman — who associated as an equal with Josef Stalin and shared with him the great drama of World War II. Harriman did so first in his capacity as Lend-Lease negotiator (1941) and later as ambassador (1943-46).

Mr. Harriman who has risen swiftly in the New Frontier from ambassador-at-large to under secretary of state for political affairs knows he will need to use every advantage available to him in the mid-July round of negotiations in Moscow on a nuclear test ban.

PRODUCING agreement, or even progress, on a test ban, which has been stalled and snarled since 1958, is likely to be the toughest assignment of the veteran diplomat's full career, and he is the first to realize it.

Mr. Harriman has made at least a dozen trips to Russia, most of them on tough assignments. His last trip in April of this year was designed to get Soviet cooperation on keeping the Geneva accords providing for a neutral and independent Laos.

His approach to negotiating with the Russians is blunt and direct. Well-grounded in homework, he makes a searching appraisal in advance of how the Soviet negotiator is likely to approach the problem.

This is done not just to have ready answers to arguments but in order to examine as objectively as possible whether — despite conflicting over-all aims — there is any common denominator which might provide limited agreement on limited objective.

Mr. Harriman believes that the most hopeful common denominator in the forthcoming test ban talks is mutual interest on the part of the Soviet Union and the United States in putting a halt to the proliferation of nuclear weapons.

He realizes that a test ban per se would not be binding on the French and Chinese who have in to go ahead with testing irrespective of such a ban.

But Mr. Harriman shares the prevailing Washington view that whatever the French and Chinese may proclaim now, world opinion would force a halt to tests if the great powers were to lead the way.

Mr. Harriman's talks with Mr. Khrushchev are facilitated by the fact that as personalities the two men hit it off even if their ideologies slash.

Mr. Harriman is probably the only American official who gets birthday telegrams from Mr. Khrushchev.

Once when Mr. Harriman was urging Mr. Khrushchev to test his ideas of class warfare against reality by talking with American labor leaders, the Soviet leader demurred saying: "They are merely lackeys of the ruling class. We want to talk to men of decision—capitalists like yourself. You are the people who decide in the United States."

MR. HARRIMAN'S powers of prophecy have not failed him from the day in 1945 when he told a reporter in London "We are going to have trouble with the Soviet Union for the rest of our lives—even if we live to be a hundred." But he believes that the search for common denominators can result in reducing the degree of trouble.

Mr. Harriman's philosophy on negotiation is summed up in these remarks: "I do not believe that radical changes will take place over night, but I think that the people's justifiable demands for a greater share in the fruits of the Soviet economy will one phase which the Soviet government has placed on its intense efforts for world Communism may substantially modify the em-

... I believe therefore that we should ceaselessly probe every possible avenue of approach to agreements with the Soviet Union rather than reject out of hand every proposal its government makes."

"Whose Shot?"

Dock Union Feud

By VICTOR RIESEL

During a recent meeting, President Kennedy was startled to learn that a feud between two U.S. maritime unions could force the United States to pay the Castro government exactly $1 million.

Further, this strife between rival ship officers' (including seagoing engineers) labor organizations could literally doom some 750 opponents of Fidel Castro to Cuba's prison pestholes especially devised for political "offenders."

Thus, early on the morning of June 15, the White House summoned the assistant secretary of labor, James Reynolds, a much overworked peacemaker now deep in the railroad crisis. An irritated President Kennedy wanted another briefing. Not inconspicuously Bob Kennedy had been angered, too.

But before Mr. Reynolds left for the White House he telephoned a National Maritime Union official, William Perry, at home in New York City.

Mr. Perry is assistant to Big Joe Curran, president of the National Maritime Union (NMU). One of its affiliates is the Brotherhood of Marine Officers (BMO). It has been in a running battle—and I mean battle—with another union, the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association (MEBA).

AS MARITIME observers know, this rivalry between the two unions, both of which are in the AFL-CIO, tied up a Cuban-bound ship, the freighter Maximus at the Luckenbach Steamship Co. dock in Philadelphia on Monday, June 10.

The vessel had been chartered to carry 3,800 tons to Cuba. This was to be the final shipment of the $53 million worth of invasion prisoners' ransom.

Secretary Reynolds talked confidentially to Bill Perry. The government official explained that the secret agreement between James Donovan and Fidel Castro had stipulated that the ransom food and medicine were to be delivered by a July 1 deadline.

If this was not met, the United States or somebody, would have to pay a million dollar penalty!

Furthermore, the Maximus was to return with some 750 political prisoners and refugees. If the deadline was not met, the refugee deal would be off too.

Reynolds wanted the National Maritime Union to remove a set of pickets from the Luckenbach dock immobilizing not only the ship but the dock, too.

The NMU pickets had been picketing pickets.

The picketed pickets were members of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association. They were picketing the Maximus. Why? Because the Maximus had been recently staffed by members of the rival National Maritime Union's Brotherhood of Marine Officers.

BY THIS TIME the ship might as well have been the SS Pinafore. It had no place to go. Originally it had put into Philadelphia to pick the cargo off the Luckenbach dock.

Because the U.S. government officially is not in the ransom operation, the ship had to be chartered and paid for by a private outfit. That outfit was the American Maritime Association.

Other Cuban-bound ransom carrying ships has been paid for by another shipping association. It was the American Maritime Association turn and it had agreed to pay $3,000 a day for 15 days for the round trip to Cuba.

But on Tuesday, June 11, shortly after the original pickets showed up to prevent the loading, the American Maritime Association pulled out. This left the Maximus without a charterer to put up the $45,000. So the government decided to try to get the ship from the dock. The American Maritime Association said it could replace the Maximus with another vessel. The original pickets were ready to leave.

But then the National Maritime Union pickets showed up. They claimed they had a right to man the Maximus. They would not be represented aboard the vessel's replacement. Then on Thursday morning a fight broke out and bones were broken and men went to the hospital.

However, National Maritime Union president Joe Curran later sent a wire to President Kennedy saying his men were willing and able to sail the Maximus.

BY THIS TIME, Luckenbach Steamship Co., was in the middle and so it went into court to have the ship and the pickets removed so it could use its own docks. Meanwhile the ransom cargo rested there. The government's plans were to try to fly it into Cuba—at a tremendous cost.

All this Mr. Reynolds discussed with Mr. Perry. The latter said it was his union's right to man the ship.

But this is just the beginning of another story. The Marine Engineers now are picketing other ships in other ports manned by the National Maritime Union. And vice versa. Regular commercial cargoes are being held up. Observers believe there could be a vast maritime tie-up.

What has happened to reason?

And why should this feud be permitted to put a million dollars worth of hard currency into Castro's coffers?

Wedding Donors

Dear Ann: A person rather close to me is planning an elaborate wedding for her daughter. The woman is not wealthy but she is not destitute either. This girl is her only child.

The mother is telephoning friends and relatives and asking them to bring refreshments for the wedding buffet. My assignment is 50 finger sandwiches—chicken preferred. My sister has been asked to bring a large cake—angel food preferred.

The more I think about this cheap trick the madder I get. It seems to me that people ought to put on the kind of wedding they can afford and not take advantage of their friends this way. What is your opinion? — IRKED.

Dear Irked: If you don't want to bring refreshments to the wedding, why don't you say so?

Some people offer to bring refreshments to affairs of this kind but putting the arm on friends and relatives is a pretty brassy maneuver.

Around the World In 80 Minutes

The way things are shaping up in this country's space program, the Russians may break all their own records before Americans are within hoping distance of matching the earlier Russian accomplishments.

The man-woman record of 82 and 49 orbits of the earth by Lt. Col. Valery Bykovsky and Valentina Tereshkova, respectively, are beyond the reach of the American astronaut program.

This country has no rocket capable of providing that much thrust. Until it has larger rockets, it is hopelessly handicapped in the size and performance of its space ships.

It is surmised by educated guessers that the latest Russian success, like the preceding ones, can be attributed to the over-all superiority of Russian equipment. Having more space to work with, Russian designers can build in refinements beyond the capabilities of U.S. designers.

Miss Tereshkova, it is pointed out, knew nothing of aviation, yet stayed in orbit for 49 circuits and was brought safely back to earth. Col. Bykovsky's experience in aviation is rudimentary compared with that of U.S. astronauts. The difference is technical, not personal.

The current stage of orbital flight is like that of aviation between World War I and World War II when endurance flights and long-distance hops were the rage. These "stunts" taught aviators and designers many things they needed to know.

But more importantly, they taught the public to take winged aviation for granted. But soon before we yawn and inquire whether that fellow—or those fellows—have orbited the earth a thousand times yet?

They Mean Every Word of It

Spokesmen for the segregation wing of the Democratic party say they will do everything in their power to scuttle the civil rights program of President Kennedy, and they mean every word of it.

It is not an idle boast.

These men control the chairmanships of key committees in both houses of Congress. They are dominant.

In the Senate, they can carry on a filibuster any time they choose—and maintain it indefinitely, contrary to wishful thinking, because they hold a club over the heads of senators, who might as well resign if they incur the ill will of the segregationist core of the Democratic party. The Solid South keeps the Democratic party in power.

It takes no special insight to predict the bitterest intraparty fight of recent years.

It is a reasonable guess that in the Democratic convention next year there will be extreme tension between delegates from segregation states and civil rights states.

It is in the cards that when the platform committee of the convention tries to write a civil rights plank the "South will rise again," as it has been rising since it was blocked from leaving the Union a century ago.

The American people can only wonder how a political party split in two over civil rights for Negroes can be one thing in the segregationist South and claim to be the opposite thing in the East, North and West? Which is the real thing?

How can the Democratic party get together next summer to organize a national campaign? The party's convention site committee is scheduled to meet in a few more days to select a convention city.

Will it be Chicago, Atlantic City, Detroit, Philadelphia, Miami, Dallas San Francisco?

People dream of waking up and finding themselves rich, which they might be if they'd just wake up.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: I get to wondering if I am the only citizen in this country who believes a republic is worth trying.

I feel like the fellow who thought Christianity was such a fine idea someone ought to try it.

The trouble is that we never agreed on the way a republic works. We never agreed on Christianity either, as witness the cruelties and atrocities committed in its name.

I think a republic is government by officials chosen by the electorate to use their own judgment. If their judgment is lousy, the electorate gets a new official.

But while the official is on the payroll, he is supposed to use his noodle. That's my idea of a republic.

The trouble is, officials would rather be re-elected than be right. So they keep inviting pressure groups to twist their arms, in hope of lining up voters for next election day.

The only place where my idea of a republic shapes up is the higher courts — the ones whose judges are appointed for life. Once they can stay on the job without soaping the electorate, they use their noodle. Some who had never been noted for mental integrity before turn into pillars of the mental community. It goes to show.

If we could find a way to relieve officials of the ordeal of soaping voters, we would get more statesmen. But politicians wouldn't go for it. They want to throw up the jobs for grabs periodically so they have a chance to latch on to the public payroll.

This is why elected officials guess what pressure groups will settle for, instead of using their God-given intelligence to make personal decisions.

And this is why our government resembles a flock of chickens instead of an organization of men. When men quit thinking for themselves, they are no better than chickens.

The Founding Fathers abhorred democracy and wanted no part of it. Show me someone who bleats about democracy and I'll show you someone who either doesn't know what he is talking about, or someone trying to make a mess of popular government.

America does not believe in democracy, never has. We elect representatives; we don't vote on everything ourselves. But if we insist on pushbutton officials, we'll get pushbutton decisions. Whoever gets to the button fustest with the mostest will make the decision for everybody.

That would be all right for a beauty contest but it's a dumb way to run a government. It guarantees a total absence of intelligence in public affairs. It is government by public clamor.

Just once, we might try being a republic. If all our public officials were willing to take a chance on the next election, we could get away with it. They could win without having to lick any toes — and wouldn't that be wonderful?

Your aunt joins me in sending regards. COTTON CORNERS UNCLE GEORGE

Dr. Brandstadt may be the basis for abnormal sweating. Antibiotics may check this disease, but cannot prevent recurrence. Various astringent lotions have been tried for sweating, but unless your doctor can remove the cause, there is little to be gained from such treatment.

Q—I read in a newspaper that if you drink soft water you are more likely to get heart disease than if you drink hard water. Is this true.

A—Some studies in England and Japan suggested that, contrary to what one might suppose, drinking hard water (water containing calcium and magnesium), instead of increasing calcium deposits in the blood vessels and leading to heart disease, actually decreases such deposits.

One study in this country suggested that heart disease occurred in higher rates in populations whose drinking water was soft, but as is the case in many similar observations, a wide range of variable factors could play a part in the reported results. It is too soon to draw any valid conclusions from these studies.

By way of example, some industries—notably the textile—tend to set up their factories in soft water areas. The supposition that working in that industry might cause an increase in heart disease would be just as valid as that it was the softness of the water.

This is one of the things that must be investigated before we point an accusing finger at the soft water.

Q—Why do I have an excess of tears several times a day? It is worse in the morning, and when walking against the wind.

A—Excessive tearing or lacrimation may be due to an increased production of tears, or to an obstruction of the lacrimal duct that drains the tears into the back part of the nasal passage.

Increased production may be due to any irritation such as a cinder or an infection in the eye, volatile irritants such as that given off by onion juice, to wind, dry such as hay fever.

Some drugs such as potassium smoke, bright lights, or an allergy to iodine or bromide, arsenic, and mercury may also cause tearing.

Such infections as the common cold and such allergies as hay fever, in addition to causing more tears to form, may also cause temporary obstruction of the lacrimal duct.

If the condition persists or is very troublesome, you should see an eye specialist.

Q—I am 43, and have been taking phenobarbital regularly for many years for epilepsy. Is this drug habit-forming?

A—All barbiturates are habit-forming, but in the case of a person with epilepsy this habit is the lesser of two evils.

Your doctor should prescribe the dose needed in your case and you should not exceed that dose.

Palms and arrangements of white gladioli and yellow mums decorated the altar as Rev. Drury Benton officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Ellen Bossert was soloist and Mrs. Mercer presided at the organ console.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white satin gown embellished with seed pearls and pastel sequins. Long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline adorned the bodice, and the bell-shaped skirt boasted a bustle back with bow detail.

Her veil was held by a hipline of nylon tulle embroidered with seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a bouquet of white and yellow roses centered with a white corsage.

Wearing a yellow chiffon gown with matching accessories, Patricia Ware was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Cynthia McElroy, sister of the bride, Jackie Lorah and Kitty Halley, college roommates of the bride. They wore yellow lace dresses. All attendants wore headbands of carnations and carried white Bibles.

John Nickleson was best man for Mr. Bednarek, and college friends of the bridegroom, John Murphy, William Sprowl, Robert Laura and Jerry Saurnier, ushered.

Mrs. McElroy wore a turquoise dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Bednarek a light blue jersey dress. Both had corsages of garydenias.

A three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom figures and decorated in yellow and white was the focal point of the bride's table which was lighted with yellow candles in crystal holders. Miss Ruth Ann Kerr registered the guests among which were those from Michigan, Alabama and Pennsylvania. Serving at the reception were Linda John, Mrs. O. C. John, Merry Lynn Severance and Mrs. W. Severance.

They are graduates of West Branch High School, attended Kent State University and are employed by Akron City Hospital.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Hippity-Hop Restaurant. Gifts were presented their attendants by the bridal couple.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

DEAR HELOISE: How do you feel about having a day for everything? Don't you think it is a good idea to establish routine such as Monday for washing, Tuesday for ironing, Wednesday for deep cleaning, etc.?

HOUSEHOLD.

Dear Homemaker: I think this is terrible and it is what makes some of us depressed and the habit is for the birds as far as I am concerned.

But that is only MY opinion. Here's why:

These things are what make fanatics and neurotics out of us and I believe women should do things when they are in the mood. They not only get chores done quicker but better when "in" the mood...

It's a proven fact that body chemistry acts at certain times (and those times vary) and if you aren't feeling well on Monday—why get up and do six loads of laundry? On Mondays do the mending if you don't feel full of energy! Besides I believe in doing laundry on weekends so the family can help.

If you had saved Thursday afternoons to do mending, Come Thursday you might be loaded with energy and can turn out your ironing twice as fast. Why not take advantage of this?

As for certain days to clean house. A woman should remember that there are seven days in a week (though most women doubt this) and I think it is also utterly foolish to clean an entire house in one day. Clean one room at a time or vacuum the entire house and leave the dusting for tomorrow etc....

Enjoy life so you can enjoy housekeeping. It's really fun if you learn to live along with it.

HELOISE.

DEARL HELOISE: When I make jam or jelly and have to melt paraffin—I always line my aluminum pan with foil.

The paraffin melts just as quickly and this saves me washing that horrible pan. And those who ever have cleaned a pan in which paraffin has been melted will know what I mean! All a woman has to do is

All a woman has to do is throw away the foil and the pan is clean.

SADIE.

DEAR HELOISE: When making angel food cake I find it best to set my pan in the sink, and it is much easier to pour the batter in. The mixing bowl is so heavy to lift and this way it is still at elbow level.

Also, if any batter happens to spill, it will get into the sink, not on the drainboard therefore can be washed down the drain by merely turning on the faucet.

4 Convicted of Impersonating FBI Agents

CLEVELAND (AP) — A U. S. district court jury has convicted Dominic C. Lonardo, a 42-year-old Cleveland bail bondsman, and three associates of charges of impersonating FBI agents.

Found guilty Thursday with Lonardo were Mario J. Guerrieri, 31, Youngstown bail bondsman; Peter J. Manos, 39, of Youngstown; and Richard A. Stewart, 31, of Cleveland.

Government evidence in the trial showed the four forced Louis Gaye and Mrs. Betty Flonoy at gunpoint from a car and held them captive for 11 hours while they questioned the pair about the whereabouts of two bond jumpers.

Judge Girard E. Kalbfleisch deferred sentencing pending disposition of motions for a new trial by the defense attorneys.

Lonardo testified in the trial that he had evidence that Gaye was picking up title for a car for Joe Arrington, a bank burglar who had jumped $50,000 bail put up by Lonardo.

Guerrieri had posted $25,000 bail for Alfred Oponowicz, who had been indicted with Arrington and another man for a burglary in 1962 at a Cleveland Trust Co. branch.

On information obtained from Gaye, Arrington was picked up and now is serving a life sentence in Ohio Penitentiary. Oponowicz has not been caught.

a half mile south of Route 517 at 5 p.m., knocking down a mailbox and loosening a telephone pole.

The Lisbon barracks of the State Highway Patrol reported Riley was passing another vehicle and cut too short, causing him to lose control and veer off the right side of the highway. His auto was extensively damaged and the operator was cited for driving without the assured clear distance.

Warren Motorist Cited

Two Trumbull County motorists figured in a mishap at 5:25 p.m. on Route 45, three-tenths of a mile north of Salem. The Patrol said Nancy Beckwith, 25, of Warren and Joseph J. Shilling, 16, of Cortland were traveling north when Shilling stopped for traffic ahead and was hit from behind by the woman's car.

The Warren driver was cited for failing to stop within the assured clear distance.

Weather Outlook

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Here is the official U. S. Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

The first day of the Summer season saw temperatures drop paradoxically to about the lowest levels of the month over Ohio. Readings were in the 30s in the northwest counties and generally in the 40s.

Columbus tied its record for the date with a low of 46 and Akron dropped to 42 degrees, also equaling the record for this date. Both of these records were set back in 1897.

Toledo reported an early morning reading of 39.

Fair, cool weather will continue over the state through tonight, but temperatures will be a little warmer Saturday afternoon as the cool Canadian air mass moves eastward. Afternoon temperatures today will be mostly in the 70s.

FIVE-DAY FORECASTS

NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures will average near normal. Normal high is 81-82, normal low 61-63. Cool Friday night, followed by a slow warming trend over the weekend, becoming cooler next week and warmer by midweek. Precipitation will average about 1/4 in. with widely scattered showers Sunday and Monday and gain about Wednesday.

2 Leetonia Youths Gets 2 Weeks In Jail

LISBON — Two 16-year-old Leetonia boys were given two weeks detention in the county jail Thursday by Judge Louis Tobin for trying to cash a forged check in Leetonia.

They also were fined $25 each and were placed on a 9 p.m. curfew for four months.

They pleaded guilty to the charge after being cited by Leetonia Chief Allen Gibson.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

Who Knows?

Nobody Certain When Ohio Legislature Will Convene

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There seems to be no certainty among Ohio's legislative leaders how soon—if ever—the 105th General Assembly will meet again.

The general feeling is that legislators of the 105th will meet again, probably shortly after Jan. 1, 1964. The lawmakers certainly will meet if the voters approve a $250-million bond issue for higher education.

That would be because legislators would be required to make legal provision for issuance of the bonds.

The lawmakers also could be called into special session by Gov. James A. Rhodes to take a look at recommendations of a "Little Hoover Commission" now examining state government functions.

As things stand now, there appear to be only two major bills standing between the legislature and adjournment. They are industrial compensation, which popped out of the House Thursday, and the unemployment compensation bill, which came out of the Senate Commerce and Transportation Committee Thursday night.

The latter bill recommends a 5.1 per cent tax increase on employers to build the benefits fund up to a "safe" level of $400 million in the next five years.

The Senate Highways Committee recommended approval of a resolution which would submit to the voters a $200-million bond issue to provide money to meet the cost of providing urban expressways in major cities.

The Senate passed over seven opposing votes a bill putting all drivers under 21 (now 18) in the probationary category. The bill, already passed by the House, must return to the House for agreement on amendments.

stage "sit-ins" in or outside the offices of any filibustering senators.

President Kennedy himself, in a message to Congress Wednesday submitting his civil rights program, cautioned against racial demonstrations "which can lead to violence" but made no mention of the intelligence reports.

Leaders of major organizations fighting for civil rights legislation promptly made clear they did not intend to call off demonstrations. The Rev. Martin Luther King, Negro integrationist leader, for one, said flatly that a nationwide protest march would be the Negroes' answer if Southern Democrats filibuster against civil rights legislation.

Dr. King had told a banquet group just the night before that "if they start filibustering, by the hundreds and the thousands white people and black people ought to march on Washington."

Leaders of civil rights organization plan a strategy meeting, possibly this weekend, in New York City, he said.

damaged. He was not held.

The Ravenna post of the State Highway Patrol reported Romoser went around a curve on Route 18, and as he started on the upgrade lost control on the rain slicked macadam pavement. It was prematurely dark at the time because of the rain.

Romoser's body was taken to Shorts Funeral Home in Ravenna.

fiscal year. Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze put a $200-million price tag on the two other measures.

Next week, the House Judiciary Committee will start hearings on the President's civil rights package with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as the lead-off witness.

OTHER WAY AROUND

A car driven by Mrs. Carleia Alexander of 189 W. Wilson St. was struck from behind on E. State St. in mid-afternoon Wednesday by an auto operated by Floyd Vesey of RD 4, Salem. It was erroneously reported in the Salem News that the woman's car struck Vesey's.

More And More U.S. Cities Fluoridate Drinking Water

Of the nation's 61 most populous cities, 27 have fluorides added to their drinking water, another has approved fluoridation (Detroit) and five have natural fluoridation (Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, Albuquerque and Jacksonville).

Addition of fluorides to water is designed to strengthen human teeth against decay.

Newsmap spots these 61 cities. Those with fluoridation are named in black boxes. In many cases, total number of persons drinking fluoridated water is greater than the city's population because surrounding suburbs may buy water from the city. For instance, over 3.5 million persons in Chicago drink fluoridated water, plus 300,000 others in 58 suburbs using Chicago water. Detroit will begin fluoridating in 1964, affecting 3.5 million people in the city and 53 suburbs. New York's mayor plans to inaugurate fluoridation before the end of 1963.

Over the nation as a whole, more than 51 million Americans in 4,251 communities were drinking fluoridated water at the end of 1962. Of these, 7.2 million had natural fluoridation, 43.8 million had controlled fluoridation.

message to the world Saturday.

The conclave which elected him was one of the shortest on record, lasting only three voting sessions.

Its ending and the election of a pontiff were signaled to the crowd in St. Peter's Square by white smoke that began pouring from the Sistine Chapel smokestack at 11:20 a.m. The crowd cheered "Bianco!"—"White!"

Had no Pope been elected, the smoke would have been black, as it was at the end of the two voting sessions Thursday.

Crowds poured into warm, sunlit St. Peter's Square as word of the election spread over Rome. Soon more than 100,000 were jammed into the square.

D. Norman Eckfield, manager of the Salem office, said, "I am happy that the Home Savings & Loan Co. is the high bidder, and I hope the General Services Administration will see fit to accept the bid. I feel it will be for the benefit of over-all community improvement."

Local Club Hears Kiwanis Official

"What is Your Personal Philosophy?" was the topic of Edward Greenamyer of Leetonia, lieutenant-governor of Kiwanis District 9, in his talk to 72 members of the Salem club Thursday noon at the Memorial Building.

The meeting was in observance of Past Presidents Day, with 14 of the local club's past presidents in attendance.

Greenamyer was introduced by program chairman Charter Merrill.

Norman Eckfield will be in charge of the program at the next meeting and will talk on "The Ohio Savings and Loan Diamond Jubilee."

Sebring Council Hikes Salaries Of Police Clerks

SEBRING — Sebring Council Thursday night gave third reading and approved passage of an ordinance increasing the annual salaries of the police desk clerks.

The ordinance hikes the salary of the night clerk from $2,520 to $3,120 and that of the day clerk from $2,340 to $2,920.

In other action Council authorized village clerk Helen Erb to purchase a street grader from the Tri-County Equipment Co. in Galion at a cost of $6,550 and a tractor loader from the International Harvester Co. in Youngstown at a cost of $3,397.

Council approved the probational employment of Mrs. Kathryn Goddard of 365 W. Oregon St. as police desk clerk to replace Mrs. William Campbell whose resignation becomes effective July 15. Mrs. Campbell has served three and a half years as clerk.

A request by H. L. Glass, Beloit village clerk, for a 60-foot extension of a water line on Oak St. in Beloit was referred to the utilities commission.

Mayor Henry E. Hutmacher presided.

NEW SCHOOL ENTERED

LISBON — Deputy James Gause reported today that nothing was taken in a break-in at the new Southern Local High School, near Highlandtown, which is under construction.

Frank Cox, an employee, called the sheriff's office at 8:30 a.m. and reported someone had entered two rooms sometime last night or early this morning. Deputy Gause said two hasps were pried off the paint room and toolroom doors.

CARS GET OILED

Three automobile drivers reported to police Thursday evening that their parked cars had been sprayed with oil by a city truck yesterday afternoon.

The drivers were Sgt. Rocco Minnitte of 218 E. Sixth St., James Hill of RD 1, Beloit, and William Windle of RD 2, Salem. Minnitte said his car was parked at the side of his home, and Hill and Windle said their cars were at the rear of 650 E. Second St. when the truck passed by while oiling and alley and sprayed the automobiles.

The order was divided between two Ohio suppliers, the Freeman Supply Co. of Toledo and Brohead, Garrett of Cleveland.

Included in the order are a $1,300 milling machine, a $1,200 metal-working lathe, $2,400 worth of printing, bookbinding and block printing equipment for the complete graphic arts shop, plus other items, including power hacksaw, wood planer, spot welder and pottery equipment and kiln.

Supt. Bailey reported the board had received approval from the State Department of Education on its request to buy a new, 72-passenger transit-type school bus. The new GMC van, to be bought from Midway Motors on Route 7 near New Waterford, will cost $10,300 and replace an 11-year-old bus. The state will furnish 57 per cent of the cost, which the superintendent says is a reduction from former bus purchase participation.

The board also agreed to repair the other four buses, including a complete motor overhaul on two vans with more than 100,000 miles of travel. Local garageman Audley Kuhn will do the work.

Six new teachers' desks were ordered from the Campus Equipment Co. of Youngstown.

Clerk Albert Lang of RD 5, Salem, was given sanction to attend the school board clerks clinic July 19 at Kent State University. Bailey will also attend the northeast Ohio conference.

Indians Dump Orioles, Alvis' Homer Clears Sacks

Azcue Clouts 2 Home Runs

Early Wynn Seeks 300th Win Tonight

CLEVELAND (AP) — "Believe me, I wasn't swinging for any home run," said Max Alvis. "I just hoped to get a base hit against that fellow."

That was Alvis' explanation for his grand slam homer in the seventh inning Thursday night, capping a six-run outburst that powered the Cleveland Indians to an 11-8 triumph over the Baltimore Orioles.

The 25-year-old rookie third baseman hit his sixth home run, and first with the bases loaded. The victim was Stu Miller, the Orioles' slow-speed relief pitcher. Alvis, who has a pulled muscle in his groin, had been hitless in 19 trips going into the game.

The Indians had blown a 5-2 lead, built on a leadoff homer by Woodie Held in the first inning and two homers by Joe Azcue, the second coming with two aboard. Azcue's second homer in the fourth inning broke a 2-2 tie. The Orioles fought back with a run in the fifth and four in the seventh to grab a 7-5 advantage.

The Indians have won 18 victories in 21 games.

The winner was Jerry Walker, who got credit for his sixth relief victory in seven decisions.

Early Wynn takes the center stage tonight for the Indians as he shoots for his 300th major league triumph. The opposition is the Chicago White Sox, who discarded the 43-year-old right-hander at the end of the 1962 season after he failed three times to reach the charmed 300 mark. Juan Pizarro (7-3) will face Wynn.

BASEBALL QUEEN CANDIDATES — One of the five attractive girls pictured above will wear the 1963 Junior Baseball Queen crown after ceremonies Saturday at 2 p.m. at Centennial Park. The contest is sponsored by the Junior Baseball Mothers Auxiliary, which hopes to make it an annual event. The candidates were chosen by members of the Class E League. They are: (front row l. to r.) Terri Brown and Jackie Fusco, juniors, and back row Linda Galchick, Darlene Smith and Carole Porter, seniors.

Chicago Cubs Shut Out Houston Colts 5-0

Cincy Clouts Phillies 11-1 Behind O'Toole's 13th Win; Pirates Lose 2-1

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole will never lead the shrinking violet league.

He'll tell you he's quite a pitcher, and then go right out and show you with his good left arm.

He showed the Philadelphia Phillies Thursday night, 11-1, and ran his record to 13-3, the top victory total in the majors. The brash

Irishman, 26, also lowered his earned run average to 2.01, a pretty good talking point.

The fourth-place Reds gained one-half game on the three National League leaders, the St. Louis Cardinals, San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers, who all were idle.

The Chicago Cubs, just one percentage point back of the Reds, kept pace with a 5-0 beating of the Houston Colts.

In the only other game on the National League schedule, Denny Lemaster, who has suddenly acquired the home run habit, pitched and batted the Milwaukee Braves to a 2-1 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The cellar New York Mets were also idle, although they invaded Yankee Stadium with 50,000 fans and trimmed the Yankees 6-2 in an exhibition game. It took the police and some nimble ushers to keep the Mets fans from taking the Yankees' world champions pennant home for a souvenir of the occasion.

Chicago ace Larry Jackson, making his 16th start and going the distance for the seventh time, gave up only four singles to the Colts as he pitched his eighth win and third shutout.

Billy Williams cracked two homers to spark the Cubs offense. Williams now has 14 hits in his last 23 trips. Ex-Cub Dick Drott was the victim.

Lemaster, who had won only two games previously despite a 2.06 earned run average, hit his second major league homer for the winning margin against the Pirates. He hit his only other homer in his last game.

Harvey Haddi was the loser. Eddie Mathews hit his ninth homer for the Braves and Ron Brand hit his first major league homer for the Pirates.

Gajda Shoots 69 To Lead Open; Nicklaus Fires 76

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—The U.S. Open golf championship moves into its second round today with a "who's he?" in front, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player in trouble and defending champion Jack Nicklaus with his broad back squarely to the wall.

"I'll have to shoot a 66 or 67 to get back into it," a discouraged Nicklaus said after his horrendous 76 Thursday left him seven strokes behind the leader—Michigan club pro Bob Gajda.

"The way things are going, I don't know, I don't know," the Ohioan, 23, added. "I certainly don't feel very good about it. It was my worst round in the open since 1959 and my worst of any kind in a long, long time."

No one looks to Gajda, 46, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., bachelor, to duplicate the sizzling 2-under-par 69 he fired on opening day at the windswept and rain-dampened old course of The Country Club that stretches 6,870-British type yards and plays to a par of 35-36-71.

But there are 43 players ahead of Nicklaus and 19 others tied with him. Many are capable of matching Nicklaus shot for shot in this 72-hole grind that ends with Saturday's 36-hole double round.

At 70 is Texan Jacky Cupit, 25, tabbed as one of the bright new stars of the game. At 71 are red-hot Tony Lema, former champion Julius Boros, and veteran Lionel Hebert along with Davis Love, 28, a club pro from Charlotte, N.C. Such as Don January and Walt Burkemo opened with 72s, Palmer landed in a big group at 73 and Player in a bigger batch at 74.

Yankees Rally To Edge Senators 5-4

Dailey's Scoreless Relief Job Decisions Chisox 9-4

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

It took Bill Dailey 10 years to find a home, but he's finally arrived.

Home is the Minnesota bullpen, but as often as not, Dailey's been forced to leave on business. He got the call again Thursday for the 23rd time, pitched scoreless ball for four innings and preserved the Twins' 9-4 triumph over the second-place Chicago White Sox.

Acquired from Cleveland for $40,000, the right-hander, 28, has turned into one of the American League's top firemen since he altered his stride toward the plate early in the season.

Dailey's sharp relief pitching dropped the White Sox two games back of the first-place New York Yankees, who edged last-place Washington 5-4 on Bobby Richardson's two-run double in the ninth inning and ran their winning streak to seven games.

Boston added to Detroit's troubles 8-3, with homers by Dick Stuart and Chuck Schilling sending the Tigers down to their 10th straight setback. Cleveland rode Max Alvis' grand slam homer to an 11-8 victory over Baltimore. Kansas City and the Los Angeles Angels were not scheduled.

Richardson drilled a Jim Coates pitch to right for the runs that made it eight losses in a row for the Senators. Coates, 2-4, took the loss with Marshall Bridges, 2-0, the winner in relief. Yogi Berra relinquished his coaching duties for New York, donned his catching gear and hit a two-run homer. Stuart's 17th homer, driving in his 43rd run, ignited a five-run Red Sox rally in the fourth inning capped by a two-run double by pitcher Arnold Earley and Schilling's homer. Earley, 3-2, got the victory, while Jim Bunning, 4-7, was tagged with the loss and a $50 fine by Umpire Hank Soar when he hit Roman Mejias with a pitch after Schilling connected.

The Indians came from behind with six runs in the seventh inning to beat the Orioles. Jerry Kindall's two-run single tied the score then Alvis put it out of reach. Joe Azcue hit two homers for the Indians and Woodie Held chipped in with one. Jim Gentile and losing pitcher Dick Hall, 2-2, connected for Baltimore. Jerry Walker, 6-1, was the winner.

Mark My Word

By MARK W. MILLER

A summer physical fitness program in Leetonia conducted by the Bears' new football coach Carl Kokor is already in its third week, with 30 boys participating. Anyone is allowed to workout at the school one hour twice a week. At present time, junior and senior boys drill Monday and Wednesday and the sophomore-freshman group Tuesday and Thursday.

Kokor's program is broken down into six categories.

The workouts start with easy loosening-up, stretching and various other warm-up exercises.

Running provides the next stage as each boy is timed in three 50-yard dashes and a 440-yard dash.

Agility drills follow, and then Kokor has his group go through three novel relays which include a soccer dribble, air dribble and volleyball pickup.

Tumbling is the next phase, and the hour session finished up with games of soccer, wrestling or basketball.

Kokor plans to meet with the parents of this year's football candidates as soon as possible. He also will talk with prospective members late in July.

DON CLARICO, Salem's new mentor, back from a two-week vacation in Florida, is readying his physical fitness program which will get under way in about two weeks.

He spent a few days with his brother Tony at Louisville, Ga., and the rest of the time with his brother, Joe, at Cocoa Beach, which is 12 miles from Cape Canaveral.

A member of the staff for the South All-Stars, Clarico will attend a special coaches meeting at Columbus this weekend. The Rebels take on the North stars in the annual grid classic at Canton Fawcett Stadium in August.

A word from THERON at the Country Store

We just got in some more booths and tables for the restaurant section of the Country Store. This will give us a seating capacity of 75.

So many people shop then eat. I call ours the New version of the Old Country Store. Our restaurant takes the place of the nail kegs and the cracker barrel you used to find in some of the old country stores years ago.

It has been suggested to me we convert our restaurant into a cafeteria style operation. I have thought of this and it would be a good idea at noons when we serve all the shop and office workers.

Bliss-Built Aluminum Mill Is Most Powerful In World

An 840-foot-long aluminum hot mill built by the E. W. Bliss Company's Rolling Mill Division in Salem and dedicated today at the Oswego, N.Y., plant of Alroll, Inc., is believed to be the most powerful of its kind in the world, having a total of 25,000 main-connected horsepower.

The edger and hot roughing stand have a total of 10,000 h.p., the first and second stands of the finishing train each have 5,000 h.p., and the winding reel has 1,000 h.p. The powerful Bliss breakdown mill is capable of taking a two-inch reduction on an ingot in a single pass.

Rated annual capacity is 100,000 tons.

The hot mill consists of a 36½ and 59-inch x 120-inch four-high reversing mill, a three-stand, 28 and 56-inch x 100-inch four-high hot finishing train, ingot buggy, crop shears, trimmers, belt-wrapper type coiling equipment and mill auxiliaries. It is currently used to roll common aluminum and aluminum alloys into coiled sheet stock.

The $38 million installation is owned by Aluminum Limited, Cerro Corp., National Distillers and Chemical Corp., and Scovill Manufacturing Co. The roll produced at Alroll will be further processed into automotive bright sheet and stock for building and home products.

The reversing mill will accept aluminum and aluminum alloy ingots weighing up to 20,500 pounds and up to 18 inches thick, and roll them into strip from .400 to 1.000 inch thick. The three-stand finishing train further reduces the strip to thicknesses from .100 to .250 inches. It is then wound in coils weighing up to a nominal 20,000 pounds in finish widths ranging from 30 to 96 inches.
